

HUNT CITY FOR MAN WHO SHOT DOWN 2 WOMEN

Drink-Crazed John Blackmeyer Killed Mother-in-Law, and Wife Is Dying.

FLED ON THE SUBWAY.

Had Been Sent to Island as a Wife-Beater—May Have Committed Suicide.

Every nook and corner of the city is being searched by the police to-day for John H. Blackmeyer, a bartender, who while drunk yesterday shot his mother-in-law and wife, killing the former instantly and leaving the latter to die when he fled. Mrs. Blackmeyer is in the Harlem Hospital, shot through the neck, and Mrs. Healy and Moschel believe she cannot survive.

It is thought Blackmeyer may have done away with himself. He was, until a few days ago, when the race-track bill was passed, in the employ of John McGrath, the race-track caterer. Blackmeyer had been drinking heavily, and with reduced patronage at the track, was one of the first to be dismissed. Only recently he had served a two-months' sentence on the island for ill-treating his wife, and she and her mother had moved to No. 14 West One Hundred and Forty-fourth street. Blackmeyer ascertained the address, and walked in upon them yesterday with a drawn revolver. "If the neck-coat brigade is in command, then this is going to happen!" shouted the drink-crazed man, firing a bullet into the brain of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Christian Meisinger.

Mrs. Blackmeyer plunged out of a window just as her husband fired at her, the bullet striking her in the neck, close to the jugular vein. Brandishing his weapon, Blackmeyer ran into the street, and was last seen boarding a subway train. His three children, one of them a pretty girl of eighteen, did not know of the tragedy until late last night.

Anty Drudge Causes a Panic in Washboilers.

Anty Drudge—"Well, well, well! So my work is beginning to show even in the store windows. When I see washboilers offered at half price, I feel just as though the women were thanking me for releasing them from the slavery of the old-fashioned washday, with its back-breaking rubbing—its ruinous boiling—and its sickening smell. For Fels-Naptha changes washday to play-day."

Modern progress hasn't forgotten the woman at the tub.

Fels-Naptha proves that.

Time was when medicine wasn't considered good unless it was strong enough or tasted bad enough half to choke the patient.

Some folks who don't know about that new way of washing think that wash-day must be a day of seething suds, scalding water, perspiration and general misery. But Fels-Naptha is converting these people who have been tied to the not-good-enough method.

You see there is a way to wash clothes summer or winter in cool or lukewarm water, a way that saves your strength, your time and your temper, and preserves the garments from the ruinous, fibre-destroying boiler.

That way is the Fels-Naptha way.

Look for the red and green wrapper.
